FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SPRINGFIELD, OH (June 17, 2020)

City Offices Closed Friday in Juneteenth Observance

Springfield City Offices will be closed Friday, June 18, in observation of the Juneteenth holiday.

Juneteenth is an emancipation observance that marks the date that remaining slaves were informed of their freedom. The United States Congress and House of Representatives passed legislation that recognized Juneteenth as a national holiday this week, a measure that was signed into law by President Joe Biden.

Regular City office hours will resume Monday, June 21.
